IV. Old Business

a. SHIP Committee

- i. Norah Perez was unable to attend.
- ii. New funded internship pilot program:
 1. Separate from SHIP grants; addresses gap between when SHIP grants are due (4/6) and when students find out about internships
 2. Funded internships very competitive, get more thorough review
 3. About 50 applications expected
- iii. 3 grants reviewed and approved since last meeting; 17 days left; we seem to be on target for budget
- iv. Types of grants approved: conference presentations are vast majority; next most common are community engagement/ volunteer/ service opportunities
- v. Review of Procedures: David Painter checks students are in good standing, looks for red flags, blind review distributed to committee members who give feedback

b. Dining Experience/ Marketplace -- No new issues raised

c. SGA

- i. Lots of events for SGA in the next couple of weeks
- ii. Wednesday President Cornwell will have an open forum with students concerning sustainability issues regarding materials in the Mills renovation. There will also be an open forum with the construction firm for Mills.

- iii. An SGA election candidates panel is also coming up

V. New and Pending Business

- a. Community Commitments
 - i. Denisa will reach out to Jasmine
 - ii. Last year we were not involved due to suspensions. This seems to be a backburner issue; we're just trying to determine the status for next year.
- b. Development of Student Survey Committee
 - i. Is there enough interest to determine what surveys are currently being done?
 - ii. Denisa will reach out to various offices (e.g. Bill Short, Sudexo (Diego), Res. Life, Wellness Center, and the IRB/ John Huston) to see what data is already being gathered.
 - iii. Topics of interest include safety concerns, dining
